

Freedom of the press is at the core of our democracy. If that is subject to monopoly, then how are we going to survive as a free country?